

City News In Brief

(From Thursday's Daily.)

Quaker City Girl Here.

Miss Helen McKinney, of Philadelphia, is the guest of Miss Mary Frank Gardner.

Range Visitor.

H. L. Kauffman, who recently entered the range business near Mayer, was in the city Monday visiting with his wife and daughter.

Range Inspection.

Granville Fain, of the big cattle firm of Fain, Heath & Co., has returned from the Hillside country, where he made an inspection of range conditions.

Theatrical Man Here.

J. S. Brazill arrived in Prescott yesterday to assume the management of the Rex theatre. Mr. Brazill came from Jerome, where he resided as manager of a motion picture house.

Back From Coast.

J. T. Nelson, a former resident of this county located at Jerome Junction, returned yesterday from Los Angeles in auto, and is to remain for several days, having interests here to look after.

Comes to Reside.

George Demaine, for many years located at Humboldt, as a metallurgist and assayer, has sold his business to F. A. Robinson, until recently of Jerome, and with his wife and family will make Prescott his future home.

To Visit Cherry Creek.

Dr. Mary L. Neff, who has been in the city for several days, will leave today for Cherry Creek, where she will be the guest of Mrs. Evan Bonham until Sunday afternoon, when she will return to Prescott to spend the following week.

From the Desert.

Lawrence Ryan, a mining man of Salome, who has properties developing, was an arrival Tuesday to remain for the summer, as has been his custom for many years. He states that field is very active, and many old mines are now operating.

Mining Business.

D. L. Booker was an arrival Tuesday from Walker, and reported the usual mining activity prevailing, with large ore shipments as ready from development given. Several old mines are ready to begin operating, and the general outlook is satisfactory.

Social Event.

The Congress hotel entertained many of its guests and city friends on Monday night with an enjoyable dance, opening up the social season in a pleasant manner. These events are to be given regularly during the summer in the spacious lobby of this popular hostelry.

Cattle Deal Closed.

A. B. Peach, foreman of the Commercial in Copper Basin, is reported to have closed a deal a few days ago for all of his cattle interests in that section. J. V. Dickson, of Skull valley, being the buyer. Whether the valuable water right known as Government Springs, on the summit of the range is included, was not learned.

Completing New Road.

C. J. McNulty, who was in the city yesterday from the McBride & McNulty copper camp, south of Copper Basin, stated that the new wagon road to the camp will be opened next week, three miles in length from the saddle on the summit of the range. One freighting then begins and Skull valley will be the loading point.

(From Friday's Daily.)

From Congress.

C. A. Randall was in the city yesterday from the Congress camp, on a business trip for the Consolidated.

From the Bonanza.

H. Wm. Stevens, president of the Yuma-Warrior Mining Co., was an arrival Wednesday from the Bonanza camp.

Visited Friends.

Mr. and Mrs. N. Shutz, of Jerome, spent a few days this week with friends in the city, returning home yesterday.

Nisbee Trip.

Mrs. N. Kilgaur and her two sons, Daniel and Neilson, leave today for Bisbee to spend a month with Mr. Kilgaur.

From the Range.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Douglas, of the Turkey country, were in the city yesterday on a business trip and to visit with friends.

Back From Mines.

William Christman, in charge of the Hillside mine of the John Lawler estate, arrived from the camp yesterday on a brief business trip.

Home Today.

El Perkins, the Crown King merchant, who has been in Prescott for several days on business, returns home this morning.

Rural Visitors.

George Bassford, of Lower Agua Fria, and L. D. Thomas, of Skull valley, both farmers, were business visitors to the city yesterday.

Summer Outing.

Mrs. H. R. Holbrook has gone to Tucson to visit with her father for a few days, and thence goes to the coast to remain for the summer.

Passes Through.

Mrs. Dr. Roberts of Jerome, passed through the city Wednesday for Long Beach, Cal., where she will spend the summer with friends.

Country Visitors.

Mr. and Mrs. John Stanley were in the city yesterday from the Coyote cattle ranch near Jerome Junction, on business and to visit with friends.

Back From Phoenix.

"Jack" Sparks, after an absence of several years in Phoenix, has returned and is now with the Crawford Co., operating the Boehm mines in Copper Basin.

From the Mines.

Matthew Hall, with the Federal company, operating on Cherry creek, was an arrival Wednesday, on business pertaining to his mine interests in this section.

Going to Celebration.

Judge S. F. Denison, of Jerome, arrived yesterday and will leave with the local delegation of Knights Templar for Los Angeles to attend the big celebration there.

Mining Business.

Harry J. Eckert was an arrival Wednesday from the Prince Albert camp, Groom Creek district, and stated arrangements for resuming at an early date were being closed up.

Mine Examination.

Frank E. Woodley, member of the board of supervisors of Los Angeles county, was an arrival Wednesday to make examination of mines in this field, with the object of investing.

Back From Coast.

Major and Mrs. W. W. Midgley, of the Valinda-Rancho in Williamson valley, have returned from Pomona, Cal., after an absence of several weeks, and leave today for their home.

Mining Man Returns.

D. M. Lacey has returned from St. Louis, and states his trip was successful in financing a large mining deal for this locality, particulars of which will be announced in a few days.

Brief Visitor.

John Norton, who has cattle interests in Lonesome valley, was a visitor during the week, returning to Pinal county, yesterday, where he is engaged in cattle business on a large scale.

To the Seaside.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Wingfield, of Camp Verde, were visitors with Prescott friends during the week, and later left for the seaside resorts of Southern California, to be away for the summer.

Back From Missouri.

Mrs. W. H. Hoover, who has been visiting in St. Joseph, Mo., for the past month, returned home yesterday. She was accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Victoria Quarles, who will remain for an indefinite visit.

Business Trip.

Charles Minetti, a pioneer resident and mine owner of the Stanton country, is in the city on a business trip, and gives a good report of conditions, more mines being active at present than for many years.

Mine Deal Pending.

D. A. Seaman, connected with the Juanita Mining Co., was an arrival Wednesday from Maxton, where he is making an examination of those holdings for Eastern investors. The property is situated in Crook canyon.

Will Recover.

News was received yesterday from Phoenix that Frank Wager who was a victim of an accident at the Tipton mine and who has since been in the hospital at Phoenix, is not seriously injured internally and that he will not lose the sight of the eye. He will be confined to the hospital several weeks.

Freight Boom.

Roth & Henderson, who are running an auto truck line to different camps near the city, placed in commission yesterday another big Jeffery Quad, owing to business increasing lately. A third truck is also under consideration.

(From Saturday's Daily.)

Visiting Friends.

Mrs. A. J. Laswell, of Skull valley, is in the city to visit with friends, and is at the Head hotel.

Visiting Farmer.

John Logan Leavell, a successful dry rancher of Big Chino valley, is in the city for a few days on a business trip.

Mining Business.

Martin Schuber, a mine owner of Copper Basin, whose holdings are under option, was in the city yesterday on business.

Visitors Leave.

Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Sullivan, who had been visiting with friends in the city for several days, returned to their home at Congress yesterday.

Called to Coast.

J. H. Tribby left yesterday for Los Angeles, where he was called on important mining business pertaining to his interests in Cherry Creek district.

Come to Visit.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Johnson, the former a mining man of Walker district, were arrivals yesterday to remain for a few days visiting with friends in the city.

Mine Examination.

D. A. Seaman, of the Juanita Mining Company, has returned to the city after making an examination of mines near Humboldt, under option to an Eastern syndicate.

To Phoenix.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Kellogg were arrivals yesterday in auto from the Horseshoe cattle ranch, near Mayer, and later the former left for Phoenix, to close deals for range cattle.

Outing Trip.

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Wood returned yesterday from a two weeks' outing in Oak creek, and report that fishing resort as popular in the many who are visiting the attractive place.

Another Big Shipment.

Ray Hill, L. L. Harmon and J. B. Jones, of the Camp Wood country, began gathering in a few days several hundred head of two and three-year-old steers, sold to F. A. Reid, of Seligman.

Leaves For Coast.

Mrs. J. H. Wilson, who had been in the city for several days visiting with her parents, Judge and Mrs. E. W. Wells, left yesterday for Los Angeles, to join her husband.

Verde Visitors.

H. B. Cummings and wife, Mrs. Blanche Caton, Sara McDonald, M. Matchinson, James Hendenhall, Granville Fain, J. L. Heath and Ben Keithley, all of Camp Verde, were arrivals yesterday.

Leaves The City.

Mrs. H. L. Kauffman has removed from the city and will hereafter reside in Lower Agua Fria valley, joining her husband who has entered the range cattle business. Her daughter, Miss Ruby Kauffman, remains here for the present.

Summer Outing.

Mrs. John Cain, wife of the well known mining man, with her son and daughter, left yesterday for Los Angeles, to remain for the summer. With them was Miss A. M. McEachran, who will take a special course of instruction at the University of California.

Mining Man Returns.

W. F. Staunton, who will be remembered as a former general manager of the Congress Consolidated Mines Co., was an arrival yesterday from Los Angeles in auto. He comes to this field to remain for several days to make observations of certain properties.

Country Outing.

Harry Brisley and son, Harold, have returned from a two weeks' outing in the eastern portion of the county on horseback, and report an enjoyable time. Ranch, range and mining prosperity, they stated, appears evident in the many localities visited.

Back From Chicago.

Morgan Holmes, who has been visiting with relatives in Chicago while recovering from an operation for appendicitis, returned yesterday and resumes his duties as a brakeman of the S. F. & P. in a few days.

Light Hay Crop.

Ernest Marlowe was a visitor yesterday from Williamson valley, and stated this season's hay crop is the lightest known for very many years. A midsummer drought is prevailing, and early rains are needed. Range interests however are in fine condition.

Visited at Mine.

Mrs. C. T. Joslin and guest, Mrs. Rose, who recently arrived from Kansas City, returned last evening from the Lincoln mining camp, near Crown King, where they visited for several days with Mrs. D. H. Bradley, wife of the general manager of the company operating that property.

Prospectors Return.

Thomas Lynch and Hughie Noonan, who had been prospecting through Southern Yavapai since February, are in the city en route to Mohave county, and thence go to Colorado. They were sent into the field by a syndicate of mining men and expect to return in September.

Seriously Ill.

Thomas Deneen, a visitor to this city during the early part of June, who accidentally shot himself in the palm of the right hand with a 22-caliber revolver, is reported to be quite seriously ill at Anaheim, Cal., from blood poisoning that developed about six days later. A portion of the hand has been amputated.

Mine Deal Pending.

E. A. Edwards, a consulting mine engineer of Los Angeles, is testing out a property near Palace station, employing four miners, on quite a large deal that is pending. The property is owned by Mr. Lane of this city. Sampling is to go ahead for several days before final action is taken.

Country Visitors.

Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Cook, who recently located in Lower Agua Fria valley, where the former has established a livestock breeding farm, were visitors with friends in the city yesterday. Cook states the range business is flourishing and that big mining in that country is making farmers prosperous also.

Range Visitor.

C. L. Ferguson, a well known rangeman of the Hillside country, was in the city Thursday on a business trip, reporting the industry in fine condition, and heavy shipping of cattle to market as having ended for the season. The condition of livestock is unusually good for this time of the year.

Mining Men Here.

H. H. Barbee and E. S. Ritter, principals of a new company which has taken over the Big Stick and other mines on the Santa Maria, were arrivals in the city yesterday on a business trip. They stated that a camp had been established, and an auto truck line is running out of Congress Junction to the holdings, distant about 30 miles. In addition to the Big Stick deal, it is also stated other purchases had been closed for properties adjoining, and extensive operations were to begin immediately.

(From Sunday's Daily.)

Vacation Trip.

Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Buehler left yesterday in auto for the Grand Canyon.

Come For Summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Spalding were arrivals during the week to remain for the summer.

Country Visitors.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Boyer, of Camp Verde, were arrivals yesterday on a business visit to the city.

Visiting Family.

J. W. Maris, of the S. F. & P., left yesterday for Phoenix to visit with his wife and family for a few days.

Rural Visitor.

George Rohpeter, of Agua Fria valley, is in the city. He is to again engage in mining, having interests near Huron.

Visiting Friends.

Mrs. John Bayes, of Camp Verde, wife of a well known rangeman, is in the city for a few days to visit with friends.

Revises Hidden Treasure.

C. W. Bennett, a recent arrival from Clarkdale, has started a camp on his Hidden Treasure mines in Groom creek.

Mining Business.

E. C. Koepke, identified with a

Chaparral mining property, was an arrival yesterday from the camp on a brief business trip.

Official Mission.

Judge P. S. Wren left yesterday for Phoenix, on official matters for the Pioneers' Home in this city, of which he is superintendent.

Come For Summer.

Mrs. Charles LaGrange and children, of Phoenix, were arrivals yesterday to remain for the summer as guests of Mrs. A. J. Peat.

Come For Summer.

Mrs. G. L. Reynolds, of Blythe, Cal., and two daughters were arrivals yesterday and will occupy a cottage in the city for the summer.

Long Auto Trip.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Davis of Fort Grant, are in the city for a few days' visit and are stopping at the Congress. Their destination is Chicago.

Will Recover.

Stephen McDougall, the telephone lineman, who sustained a fracture of the skull several days ago in falling from a pole, is daily improving and his recovery is now assured.

From Commercial.

A. B. Peach, foreman of the Commercial in Copper Basin, was a brief business visitor yesterday, reporting daily production as over 100 tons of ore, and underground conditions improving.

Recuperating Health.

W. A. Hall, who will be remembered as a frequent visitor in recent years, brother of Lon D. and S. P. Hall, was an arrival yesterday from Los Angeles, to remain indefinitely, for his health.

Come to Visit.

Mrs. W. B. Back, of Montezuma's Well, and daughter, Mrs. Granville Fain, of Camp Verde, were arrivals yesterday for a weekend visit with their many Prescott friends. They are at Head hotel.

Returning to Oklahoma.

Mrs. Penn and family and her sister, Mrs. Rose, leave this morning in two Buicks for their home in Oklahoma. There are seven in the party and they plan to make the overland trip by easy stages and visit all points of interest.

Mining Business.

J. H. Shockley, a principal of the new company operating the Homestead gold mines at Walker, was an arrival yesterday from the camp on business. Also in the city yesterday from Walker, was C. C. Stukeley, the merchant and mining man.

Mining Men Here.

Thos. McKeown, of Carson City, Nev., and Fillmore Mundes, of Grass Valley, Cal., are recent arrivals, and have gone into the Black Canyon country on a mine examination trip for a few days. Mr. McKeown was here last Spring. He is interested in operations going on on the Comstock lode.

Passing Through.

Mr. and Mrs. N. J. Hogan, and guests, the Misses Helen and Florence Dorn, were arrivals in auto Friday night from the Ajo copper camp, in Yuma county, en route to Flagstaff to visit for a few weeks with relatives. They return to attend Frontier Days festivities in Prescott, remaining until August, when they will leave for the coast.

Going to Oak Creek.

Five auto parties, from Pima and Pinal counties, passed through the city yesterday afternoon, bound for Oak creek on a trout fishing trip for a few weeks. Mr. Parkins, of the party, stated nine other autos would arrive today and tomorrow, and later all would return to Prescott to attend Frontier Days doings. He also stated that the present warm wave in the South is driving many to the mountains, and Summer is approaching six weeks ahead of last year so far as intense heat is concerned.

(From Tuesday's Daily.)

At Idylwild.

Dr. Mary Lawson Neff is the guest of Miss Kate Cory at Idylwild for a few days.

Country Visitors.

Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Thayer, of Dewey, were visitors with friends in the city Sunday.

Seeking Brother.

Information is wanted of the whereabouts of Johnnie Quick by his brother, George Quick at Phoenix.

Regrets to Leave.

Miss Eula Small, of San Diego, who had been visiting with her sister, Mrs. C. L. Goldtrap, for several weeks, returned home yesterday.

Summer Outing.

Mrs. C. C. Hageman left yesterday for Long Beach, Cal., for the summer, then departing for Denver to remain for an extended visit with relatives.

From the North.

Frank Dickerson and J. W. Dial are in the city from Seligman on business. Large shipments of cattle are being made to Eastern markets, they say, from that point.

Country Visitor.

Homer Hixon, of Thompson valley, a business visitor yesterday, stated good crops are assured, but range conditions are not satisfactory, owing to warm and dry weather.

Going to Coast.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Cordes, former residents of this county, were arrivals

PUBLIC RECORDS

Instruments Filed as Recorded by The Prescott Title Co.

June 12, 1916.

L. S. Colwell, county recorder, appoints C. S. Chick as registration officer.

Bert Thorne and estate of H. L. Sweeney locate Gypsy Queen mine, Black Hills district.

Fen S. Hildreth and wife to J. W. Sullivan. SE $\frac{1}{4}$, E $\frac{1}{4}$ of SW $\frac{1}{4}$ and SW $\frac{1}{4}$ of SW $\frac{1}{4}$ Sec. 4; NW $\frac{1}{4}$ of NE $\frac{1}{4}$, E $\frac{1}{4}$ of SE $\frac{1}{4}$ and NW $\frac{1}{4}$ of SE $\frac{1}{4}$ Sec. 8, 17 N., 3 W.

E. Marks to Morris Harris. One-sixth interest in lease and option from estate of Richard S. Barnes.

A. C. Robbins locates four water rights on Date creek.

June 13, 1916.

Enes Randolph and wife to Thos. N. King. W $\frac{1}{2}$ and SE $\frac{1}{4}$ Sec. 8, all of Secs. 10 and 20, 18 N., 3 W., 1760 acres.

Commercial Mining Co. files notice of non-liability on Hackberry mine, Big Bug district, being operated by Big Bug Development Co.

Maudie M. Clifford and King Fortune Mining Co. by Sheriff to Sarah E. and Edward M. Blake. Cabinet Silver mine, Big Bug district.

Wm. H. Wolfe to Myrtle and Minnie Wolfe. S $\frac{1}{2}$ of Lots 7 and 8, Block 9, Otis Addition, Prescott.

C. W. Holder and John R. Dobler locate three mines, Castle Creek district.

Fred Bowler vs. Major Mining & Milling Co